8.4 Consumption or Possession of Alcoholic Beverage by Under-Aged Persons. Any person under the minimum age for Alcohol consumption under State law who consumes, possesses, or attempts to consume or possess any Alcoholic Beverage on Trust Lands shall be in violation of this Ordinance.

8.5 Sales of Alcoholic Beverage to Under-Aged Persons. Any person who sells or otherwise provides an Alcoholic Beverage to any person under the minimum age for Alcohol consumption under State law shall be in violation of this Ordinance.

8.6 Use of False or Altered Identification. Any person who attempts to purchase any Alcoholic Beverage on Trust Lands through the use of false or altered identification shall be in violation of this Ordinance.

8.7 Acceptable Identification. Any Licensee who sells or otherwise provides any Alcoholic Beverage to a person who appears he or she may be under the minimum age for Alcohol consumption under State law without first verifying that person’s age with an acceptable form of identification shall be in violation of this Ordinance. The following are acceptable forms of identification:

(a) A current driver’s license of any state or other current identification card issued by any state;

(b) A current passport of any nation;

or

(c) A Mechoopda Indian Tribe of Chico Rancheria, California, tribal member identification card.

8.8 No Extension of Credit. Any Licensee who makes a retail sale of any Alcoholic Beverage on credit shall be in violation of this Ordinance; provided, however, nothing in this Ordinance shall prohibit the use of ATM cards, debit cards, or credit cards as a means of purchasing Alcoholic Beverages.

8.9 Sale for Personal Consumption. Any person, organization, or entity, other than a Licensee, who purchases any Alcoholic Beverage on Trust Lands and resells the Alcoholic Beverage, shall be in violation of this Ordinance.

9. Enforcement

9.1 Fine Imposed. In addition to any other penalty, any person, organization, or entity in violation of this Ordinance or any Alcoholic Beverage License or Temporary Alcoholic Beverage Permit shall be liable for a reasonable civil fine not to exceed $500.00 per violation.

9.2 Revocation or Suspension of License. In addition to any other penalty, any Alcoholic Beverage License or Temporary Alcoholic Beverage Permit may be suspended or revoked for violation of this Ordinance, an Alcoholic Beverage License, or a Temporary Alcoholic Beverage Permit.

9.3 Right to Notice and Hearing. No penalty, other than temporary suspension of an Alcoholic Beverage License or Temporary Alcoholic Beverage Permit, shall be imposed under this Ordinance without first providing the alleged violator written notice of the circumstances surrounding the alleged violation and the opportunity to be heard and present witnesses and evidence at a hearing before the Tribal Council, or designee, within fifteen (15) days of the alleged violator’s receipt of such notice. The notice shall set forth the right of the alleged violator to be represented by legal counsel, speak and present witnesses, and cross examine any adverse witnesses. The decision of the Tribal Council, or designee, shall be issued within sixty (60) days of the date of the hearing and shall be final and non-appealable.

9.4 Seizure of Contraband. Any Alcoholic Beverage possessed, transferred, sold, or purchased contrary to the terms of this Ordinance, an Alcoholic Beverage License, or a Temporary Alcoholic Beverage Permit is contraband and subject to seizure by a designated Tribal official. Contraband shall be preserved in accordance with State law and shared with State and federal law enforcement officials as required by law.

10. Taxes

10.1 Sales Tax. There is hereby levied and shall be collected a tax on each sale of Alcoholic Beverages on Trust Lands in an amount to be determined by the Tribal Council, or designee, from time to time. The tax imposed pursuant to this section shall be in addition to any tax imposed on Alcoholic Beverages sales by the State.

10.2 Taxes Due. All taxes for the sale of Alcoholic Beverages on Trust Lands are due and payable to the Tribal Council, or designee, within thirty (30) days of the end of the calendar quarter.

10.3 Reports. Along with the payment of taxes imposed herein, the Licensee shall submit an accounting for the quarter of all income from the sale of Alcoholic Beverages as well as the amount of taxes collected.

10.4 Audit. The Tribal Council, or designee, shall have the right to review or audit the books and records of any Licensee relating to the sale of Alcoholic Beverages on Trust Lands at any time during the Licensee’s normal business hours.

11. Severability and Miscellaneous

11.1 Severability. If any provision or application of this Ordinance is determined upon review by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such adjudication shall not be held to render ineffectual the remaining provisions of this Ordinance or to render such provisions inapplicable to other persons or circumstances.

11.2 Prior Enactments. Any and all ordinances, resolutions, or enactments of the Tribal Council which are inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.

12. Amendments

Any amendments to this Ordinance shall become effective upon the Secretary of the Interior’s publication of the same in the Federal Register in accordance with federal law.

13. Effective Date

This Ordinance shall be effective upon the Secretary of the Interior’s publication of the same in the Federal Register in accordance with federal law.

14. Sovereign Immunity

Nothing herein is intended to, nor does in any way, limit, alter, restrict, or waive the Tribe’s sovereign immunity from uncompensated suit or action.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Advisory Board was established in accordance with the Federal Advisory Committee Act, Public Law 92–463. The following provides information about the Committee, the membership and the nomination process.

1. Objective and Duties

(a) Members of the Advisory Board will provide guidance, advice and recommendations with respect to special education and related services for children with disabilities in BIE-funded schools in accordance with the requirements of IDEA;

(b) The Advisory Board will:

(1) Provide advice and recommendations for the coordination of services within the BIE and with other local, State and Federal agencies;

(2) Provide advice and recommendations on a broad range of policy issues dealing with the provision of educational services to American Indian children with disabilities;

(3) Serve as advocates for American Indian students with special education needs by providing advice and recommendations regarding best practices, effective program coordination strategies, and recommendations for improved educational programming;

(4) Provide advice and recommendations for the preparation of information required to be submitted to the Secretary of Education under 20 U.S.C. 1411(h)(2);

(5) Provide advice and recommend policies concerning effective inter/intra agency collaboration, including modifications to regulations, and the elimination of barriers to inter- and intra-agency programs and activities; and

(6) Report and direct all correspondence to the Assistant Secretary—Indian Affairs through the Director, BIE with a courtesy copy to the Designated Federal Officer (DFO).

2. Membership

(a) Pursuant to 20 U.S.C. 1411(h)(6), the Advisory Board will be composed of up to 15 individuals involved in or concerned with the education and provision of services to American Indian infants, toddlers, children, and youth with disabilities. The Advisory Board composition will reflect a broad range of viewpoints and will include at least one member representing each of the following interests: American Indians with disabilities; teachers of children with disabilities; American Indian parents or guardians of children with disabilities; service providers; State education officials; local education officials; State interagency coordinating councils (for States having Indian reservations); Tribal representatives or Tribal organization representatives; and other members representing the various divisions and entities of the BIE.

(b) The Assistant Secretary—Indian Affairs may provide the Secretary of the Interior recommendations for the chairperson; however, the chairperson and other Advisory Board members will be appointed by the Secretary of the Interior. Advisory Board members shall serve staggered terms of two years or three years from the date of their appointment.

3. Miscellaneous

(a) Members of the Advisory Board will not receive compensation, but will be reimbursed for travel, including subsistence, and other necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties in the same manner as persons employed interminently in Government Service under 5 U.S.C. 5703.

(b) A member may not participate in matters that will directly affect, or appear to affect, the financial interests of the member or the member’s spouse or minor children, unless authorized by the appropriate ethics official. Compensation from employment does not constitute a financial interest of the member so long as the matter before the committee will not have a special or distinct effect on the member or the member’s employer, other than as part of a class. The provisions of this paragraph do not affect any other statutory or regulatory ethical obligations to which a member may be subject.

(c) The Advisory Board meets at least twice a year, budget permitting, but additional meetings may be held as deemed necessary by the Assistant Secretary—Indian Affairs or the DFO.

(d) All Advisory Board meetings are open to the public in accordance with the Federal Advisory Committee Act regulations.

4. Nomination Information

(a) Nominations are requested from individuals, organizations, and federally recognized Tribes, as well as from State Directors of Special Education (within the 23 States in which BIE-funded schools are located) concerned with the education of Indian children with disabilities as described above.

(b) Nominees should have expertise and knowledge of the issues and/or needs of American Indian children with disabilities. Such knowledge and expertise are needed to provide advice and recommendations to the BIE regarding the needs of American Indian children with disabilities.

(c) A summary of the candidates’ qualifications (resume or curriculum vitae) must be included with a completed nomination application form, which is located on the BIE website. Nominees must have the ability to attend Advisory Board meetings, carry out Advisory Board assignments, participate in teleconference calls, and work in groups.

(d) The Department of the Interior is committed to equal opportunities in the workplace and seeks diverse Committee membership, which is bound by Indian Preference Act of 1990 (25 U.S.C. 472).

5. Basis for Nominations

If you wish to nominate someone for appointment to the Advisory Board, please do not make the nomination until the person has agreed to have his or her name submitted to the BIE for this purpose. A person can also self-nominate.

6. Nomination Application

Please fill out the application form completely and also include a copy of the nominee’s resume or curriculum vitae. The nomination application form can be found on the BIE website at http://www.bie.edu/Programs/SpecialEd/AdvisoryBoard/index.htm.

7. Information Collection

This collection of information is authorized by OMB Control Number 1076–0179. “Solicitation of Nominations for the Advisory Board for Exceptional Children,” with an expiration date of: 02/28/2021.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Bureau of Indian Affairs

Summary: The Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) is announcing a two-week extension of the comment period for the Draft Environmental Impact Statement (DEIS) for the Proposed Redding Rancheria Fee-to-Trust and Casino Project, Shasta County, California. The BIA published a Notice of Availability on April 10, 2019.

Dates: The BIA must receive all comments by June 17, 2019.

Addressee: You may mail or hand deliver comments to Amy Dutschke, Regional Director, Bureau of Indian Affairs, Pacific Region, 2800 Cottage Way, Sacramento, California 95825. Please include your name, return address, and “DEIS Comments, Redding Rancheria Project” on the first page of your written comments. You may also submit comments through email to Chad Broussard, Environmental Protection Specialist, Bureau of Indian Affairs, at chad.broussard@bia.gov. Please include your name and return address on the first page of your written comments. If emailing comments, please use “DEIS Comments, Redding Rancheria Project” as the subject of your email.

For Further Information Contact: Chad Broussard, Environmental Protection Specialist, Bureau of Indian Affairs, Pacific Regional Office, 2800 Cottage Way, Room W–2820, Sacramento, California 95825; telephone: (916) 978–6165; email: chad.broussard@bia.gov. Information is also available online at www.reddingeis.com.

Supplementary Information: On April 10, 2019, the BIA published in the Federal Register (84 FR 14391) a Notice of Availability for the DEIS the Proposed Redding Rancheria Fee-to-Trust and Casino Project, Shasta County, California. BIA then held a public hearing at the Redding Memorial Veterans Hall in Redding on May 20, 2019.

The DEIS has been prepared for the Redding Rancheria’s (Tribe) application requesting that the United States acquire approximately 232 acres of land in trust in Shasta County, California. The proposed fee-to-trust property is located in an unincorporated part of Shasta County, California, approximately 1.6 miles northeast of the existing Redding Rancheria, and about two miles southeast of downtown Redding. The proposed trust property includes seven parcels, bound by Bechelli Lane on the north, private properties to the south, the Sacramento River on the west, and Interstate 5 on the east. The Tribe is proposing to construct a casino resort that includes a casino, hotel, event/convention center, outdoor amphitheater, retail center, and associated parking/infrastructure. The new facility would replace the Tribe’s existing casino, and the Tribe would convert the existing casino buildings to a different Tribal use. Additional information on the proposed action, alternatives to the proposed action, and potential environmental impacts associated with the proposed action and alternatives can be found in the DEIS.

Locations where the DEIS is Available for Review: The DEIS is available for review during regular business hours (8 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.) at the BIA Pacific Regional Office, 2800 Cottage Way, Sacramento, California, and at the Redding Public Library, 1100 Parkview Avenue, Redding, California. The DEIS is also available online at http://www.reddingeis.com. To obtain a compact disc copy of the DEIS, please provide your name and address in writing or by phone to Chad Broussard, Bureau of Indian Affairs, Pacific Regional Office, 2800 Cottage Way, Sacramento, California; telephone: (916) 978–6165; email: chad.broussard@bia.gov. Individual paper copies of the DEIS will be provided upon payment of applicable printing expenses by the requester for the number of copies requested.

Public Comment Availability: Comments, including names and addresses of respondents, will be available for public review at the BIA address shown in the Addresses section, during regular business hours, 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, except holidays. Before including your address, telephone number, email address, or other personal identifying information in your comment, you should be aware that your entire comment—including your personal identifying information—may be made publicly available at any time. While you can ask in your comment that your personal identifying information be withheld from public review, the BIA cannot guarantee that this will occur.

John Tabusda, Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary—Indian Affairs.
